WELCOME ADDRESS

BY ABUJA METRO YOUTH LEADER

The Field Superintendent, the Executive and General Council of The Apostolic Church Nigeria, FCT Field, Abuja Metro, District Pastors, Assembly Pastors and Assistant Pastors, B.O.T., Elders and Deacons, Distinguished leaders, and fellow youths,

I welcome you all to the 2nd edition of the Brothers Conference.

It is both a privilege and an honour to stand before you today as we gather for this important Brothers' Conference. This moment is not just another meeting, it is a divine opportunity for us as brothers to reflect, realign, and rise into the purpose God has ordained for our lives.

THE THEME FOR THIS YEAR THROUGH THE HOLY SPIRIT INSPIRATION — THE UNASHAMED MAN: BUILT FOR RESPONSIBILITY.

Talking about responsibility, it means to be accountable for your actions, duties, and obligation.

Matthew 25 : 14-30 (The Talents)

Galatians 6 : 4-5 (Personal Accountability and calling)

Ezra 10 : 4 (Taking Action on Duty)

Brothers, we are living in times where the role of a godly man is being challenged from every direction, the society is constantly redefining what it means to be a man, but as believers, we must not conform to the patterns of this world. Instead, we are called to stand firm on the truth of God's word. A true brother in Christ is not defined by physical strength alone, but by spiritual depth, integrity, discipline, and love.

It is in the scripture "iron sharpens iron." This means we are not meant to walk this journey alone. Conferences like this are designed to strengthen our bond, encourage accountability, and build each other up in faith. As brothers, we must support one another not compete, not tear down, but uplift and inspire.

One of the greatest responsibilities to carry as men is leadership.

What is leadership? Leadership is the ability to influence, inspire, and guide others towards a shared vision or goal. It is also an actions-oriented process that empowered individuals to collaborate and achieve results they could not reach alone. Be reminded, whether in our homes, church, workplaces, or communities, people are looking up to us.

Worthy of note, leadership is not about control it is about service. It is about being an example of humility, patience, and righteousness. When we lead with fear of God, we lead with purpose.

Responsibility can only be achieved through discipline. A man without discipline is like a city without walls vulnerable and easily broken. We must discipline our thoughts, our actions, and our time. We must commit to prayer, to studying the Word of God, and to living a life that reflects Christ even when no one is watching us.

One of the ways to maintain responsibility is to have a purpose. Each one of us has been created for a reason. God did not make a mistake when He created you. There is a purpose on your life, and it is your responsibility to discover it and walk in it. Do not allow distractions, fear, or past failures to hold you back. Rise up, take responsibility, and pursue your God given destiny.

To the young brothers here today: you are the future of the church, but more importantly, you are the present. Do not wait until tomorrow to start living for God. Start now. Build your character now. Develop your relationship with God now. The choices you make today will shape the man you become tomorrow.

As we continue in this conference, I encourage each one of us to open our hearts. Let us be willing to learn, to unlearn, and to grow. Let us leave this place not just inspired, but transformed.

In closing, brothers, let us commit to being men of faith, men of integrity, men of purpose, and men who fear God. Let us rise above mediocrity and become the men God has called us to be.

May God strengthen us, guide us, and empower us to live victorious lives.

Thank you, and God bless you.

Brother Prince Okokon
Abuja Metro Youth Leader

OPENING HYMN CCH - 8

Round the Lord in glory seated,
cherubim and seraphim
filled his temple, and repeated
each to each th'alternate hymn

Chorus:

"Lord, Thy glory fills the heaven,
earth is with its fullness stored;
unto Thee be glory given,
holy, holy, holy, Lord."

Heav'n is still with glory ringing;
earth takes up the angels' cry,
"Holy, holy, holy," singing,
"Lord of Hosts, the Lord Most High!"

With His seraph train before Him,
With His holy Church below,
thus conspire we to adore Him,
bid we thus our anthem flow:

Thus Thy glorious name confessing,
with Thine angel hosts we cry,
"Holy, holy, holy," blessing
Thee, the Lord of Hosts Most High

CLOSING HYMN CCH - 248

It passeth knowledge, that dear
love of Thine,
My Savior, Jesus; yet this soul of
mine
Would of Thy love in all its breadth
and length,
Its height and depth, its everlasting
strength,
Know more and more.

It passeth telling, that dear love of Thine,
My Savior, Jesus; yet these lips of
mine
Would fain proclaim to sinners, far
and near,
A love which can remove all guilty
fear,
And love beget.

It passeth praises, that dear love of Thine,
My Savior, Jesus; yet this heart of mine
Would sing that love, so full, so rich,
so free,
Which brings a rebel sinner, such as me,
Nigh unto God.

Oh, fill me, Jesus, Savior, with Thy love!
Lead, lead me to the living fount above;
Thither may I, in simple faith draw nigh,
And never to another fountain fly,
But unto Thee.

Lord Jesus, when Thee face to face I see,
When on Thy lofty throne I sit with Thee,
Then of Thy love, in all its breadth
and length,
Its height and depth, its everlasting
strength,
My soul shall sing.
